

Section 13(1) Duties Act 2001

Transaction not effected by a written instrument.

State Revenue Office
Department of Treasury and Finance

Use of this form

You can use this form to evidence a dutiable transaction that does not have a written instrument to support the transaction; for example if you have declared a trust over property but have not put the details of the trust in writing. The most dutiable transactions are effected by a written instrument, for example a land transfer or deed declaring a trust.

How to fill out this form

The form can be completed by the transferee or liable taxpayer under the dutiable transaction.

- ▶ Print this form as a blank document and fill it out by hand; or
- ▶ Fill it in using Adobe Acrobat (version 8 or later); depending on the version you have, you may not be able to save the edited document, however you will be able to print the edited document.

What you will need to complete this form

You will need to have identifying details of the dutiable transaction.
