

Section 46E of the Duties Act 2001

Concession from duty: Transfer to first home buyers of an established home

State Revenue Office
Department of Treasury and Finance

About this form

The form should be used if you are applying for the 50 percent Duty Concession as a first home buyer of an established home, which has a dutiable value of $400 000 or less.

Important

- Claiming a duty refund: Applicants who have already paid full duty on the transfer and wish to claim a refund must also complete Part B.
- Declaration: All transferees must complete and sign this form including the Statutory Declaration at Part C. The spouse/partner of the transferee/s must complete and sign the Statutory Declaration on the final page of Part C if they are not one of the transferees.

About the statutory declaration

A statutory declaration is a written statement declared to be true in the presence of an authorised witness who can include:

- Bank officer, credit union officer, or finance company officer with five or more years of continuous service.
- Medical practitioner (doctor or nurse).
- Chiropractor.
- Optometrist.
- Commissioner for Declarations.*
- Pharmacist.
- Dentist.
- Physiotherapist.
- Judge or Magistrate of a court.
- Psychologist.
- Justice of the Peace.
- Police Officer.
- Legal practitioner.
- Teacher employed full-time at a school or tertiary education institution.
- Veterinary surgeon.

It is important that you also read the Duty Concession eligibility criteria on the next page before completing the form.

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible for the Duty Concession, all transferees (purchasers) of the property must:

- a) complete the purchase of an established home between 7 February 2018 and 30 June 2022 (inclusive) that does not exceed $400 000; and
- b) be a natural person (not a company or trust); and
- c) be at least 18 years of age*; and
- d) be an Australian citizen or permanent resident, or if there is more than one applicant at least one of them must meet this criterion; and
- e) not have previously been the owner (as defined by section 46A of the Duties Act 2001) of a home (or have a spouse/partner who has previously been the owner of a home) in Australia; and
- f) not have received a First Home Owner Grant or the Duty Concession before (or have a spouse/partner who has); and
- g) fully complete the application form and lodge it with all relevant supporting documentation; and
- h) occupy the home as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least six (6) months commencing within 12 months of completion of the purchase of the property*; the duty concession may be applied in anticipation of the principal place of residence requirement being met. (Principal place of residence means the property at which you usually eat and sleep; it does not mean, for example, a vacant residence where you just leave personal belongings); and
- i) maintain ownership of the property until the requirement to occupy the home as a principal place of residence has been satisfied.

* The Commissioner of State Revenue has a discretion to vary criteria c) and h) above in some circumstances. Please contact the State Revenue Office if you need more information.

How and what to lodge, according to the circumstances shown below

- a) I have a representative (solicitor or conveyancer) acting for me. How do I claim the concession?
Complete this form and provide it to your representative. If you satisfy the eligibility requirements, the representative will apply the concession to your transaction.
- b) I do not have a representative acting for me. How do I claim the concession?
Lodge this completed form with the original dutiable transaction at the State Revenue Office.
- c) I have already paid full duty on the transaction. How do I claim the concession?
Lodge this completed form with the State Revenue Office and ensure Part B is completed.
