Using this declaration

Use this declaration if you are applying for the Intergenerational Rural Transfer Exemption for the transfer of primary production land.

About statutory declarations

A statutory declaration is a written statement declared to be true in the presence of an authorised witness.

The following people are authorised witnesses:

- Legal practitioner;
- Registered health practitioner (doctor, pharmacist, nurse etc);
- Judge or magistrate of a court;
- Bank officer, credit union officer, or finance company officer with five or more years of continuous service;
- Police officer.
- Veterinary surgeon;
- Teacher employed full-time at a school or tertiary education institution;
- Justice of the Peace
- Commissioner for Affidavits and Declarations;

Refer to the full list of authorised witnesses.

What you will need

Refer to the Intergenerational Rural Transfer Exemption guideline

To complete this declaration, you must provide:

- A copy of the trust deed/s if the transfer involves a trust or trusts.
- A copy of the shareholder registry showing all the names of current shareholders if the transfer involves a company or companies (that are not trustees).

Who should complete this statement?

This statement must be completed by the transferee. If the transfer is to more than one transferee, each transferee must complete a separate declaration.
